

Materials for Classical Enrichment Courses

For the 2017-18 Academic Year

General Notes:

- ❑ All books MUST be on hand for the first day of class unless specified as second semester texts.
- ❑ Please purchase the books which correspond to the ISBNs provided, especially when the works being taught are in translation.
- ❑ Beware that many books in the public domain (first published before 1923) are frequently “counterfeited” by individuals using print-on-demand services to sell look-alike books on Amazon. Always use ISBN numbers and make sure books are coming from known publishers.
- ❑ In addition to the materials listed below, students should come prepared with items from the supply list appropriate to their grade, available on the academy website.
